

Omron Electronics LLC Privacy Policy

Supplemental Notice for California Consumers

Last Updated November 20, 2020

Why?	The California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (CCPA) gives California residents the right to know what Personal Information Omron Electronics LLC (“Omron,” “we,” “us,” or “our”) collects about them, including whether it is being sold or disclosed to third parties. The CCPA also grants certain rights to California residents, including the right to delete their Personal Information (subject to certain exceptions) and the right to prevent Omron from selling their Personal Information. Companies are also prohibited from retaliating or discriminating against consumers for exercising their rights under the CCPA. All companies need to collect and share consumers’ Personal Information for everyday business purposes, marketing, and maintenance of the safety, security, and integrity of their websites and other assets, among other reasons. This Supplemental Notice provides the information required under the CCPA and applies to both Omron’s online and offline activities. For more information about how we collect, use, and share information through our websites and online services, please review our Online Privacy Policy.
What?	Please review the information below to learn about the categories of personal information we have collected about you in the preceding 12 months, along with the categories of sources from which the personal information was collected, the purpose for collecting or selling the personal information, the categories of third parties with whom we share the personal information, and if we sell the information, the categories of third parties to whom we sell it. In addition to the purposes for collecting and sharing Personal Information described below, Omron collects and discloses any and all Personal Information (regardless of your relationship or interaction with us) as necessary or appropriate to: comply with laws and regulations; monitor, investigate, and enforce compliance with and potential breaches of Omron policies and procedures and legal and regulatory requirements; comply with civil, criminal, judicial, or regulatory inquiries, investigations, subpoenas, or summons; and exercise or defend the legal rights of Omron Healthcare and its employees, affiliates, customers, contractors, and agents.
Personal Information	In this Supplemental Notice, “Personal Information” (or “PI”) means any information that identifies, relates to, describes, or is capable of being associated with you or your household, whether directly or indirectly.
Your Rights	If you are a California resident, you have the following rights under the CCPA with respect to your Personal Information: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Right to Notice. Before or at the time we collect Personal Information from you, you have the right to receive notice of the Personal Information to be collected and the purposes for which we use it. This Supplemental Notice is intended to satisfy this requirement. You also have the right to request that we disclose to you the categories of personal information we have collected about you in the preceding 12 months, along with the categories of sources from which the personal information was collected, the purpose for collecting or selling the personal information, the categories of third parties with whom we shared the personal information, and the categories of third parties with whom we sold the personal information.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Right of Access. You have the right to request that we disclose or provide you with access to the specific pieces of Personal Information we have collected about you in the preceding 12 months. • Right to Deletion. You have the right to request that we delete the Personal Information we collect from you. However, in certain situations we are not required to delete your Personal Information, such as when the information is necessary in order to complete the transaction for which the Personal Information was collected, to provide a good or service requested by you, to comply with a legal obligation, to engage in research, to secure our websites or other online services, or to otherwise use your Personal Information internally in a lawful manner that is compatible with the context in which you provided the information. • Right to Opt-Out of the Sale of Personal Information. If Omron sells your Personal Information to third parties, you have the right, at any time, to direct us not to sell your personal information. • Right Not to Be Subject to Discrimination. You have the right to be free from discrimination or retaliation for exercising any of your rights under the CCPA as described above. You can exercise your rights by contacting us at websupport-am@omron.com.
